ARMISTICE DAY PARADE ENDS IN THE SLAYING OF FOUR WAR VETERANS BY I. W. W. SNIPERS

OPERATORS AND MINERS AGREE TO ATTEND SEC. WILSON'S CONFERENCE. MINERS ARE RETURNING SLOWLY

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 12.—Original demands of a 60 percent increase in wages, a six hour day and a five day week will be presented to operators by mine workers in the joint state conference, called for Friday in Washington at the instance of Secretary of Labor Wilson, according to Frank Farrington, chairman of the miners' scale committee, who came here today enroute to the national capital.

Asked whether the miners would obey the strike rescinding order of Acting President Lewis, Farrington said:

"In my judgment, the miners will not return to work."

He added, however, that he spoke only for the Illinois district, of which he is president.

Farrington said the impression that the "state had been wiped clean" so far as demands were concerned, had no basis in fact, although the miners stood ready to negotiate a new scale without reservations.

"The old demands will stand," Mr. Farrington stated. "They were forwarded by the Cleveland convention. All of them, however, are subject to negotiations."

Miners' representatives will, he declared, that any new agreement be effective at once and not on March 31, 1920, as operators formerly contended.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 12.—Thomas C. Brewster, chairman of the coal operators' scale committee, announced today that the nine miners had accepted Secretary Wilson's invitation to meet representatives of the miners here Friday to negotiate a new wage agreement.

"We will be there," said he.

John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, already had notified Secretary Wilson of his acceptance, meanwhile declining an offer from Brewster to meet the latter's committee here Monday to negotiate the contract now in effect.

Spokesmen for the miners said today this negotiation could not be considered for a moment, and that the only way to bring peace to the coal fields was through adoption of a pay scale to take effect immediately.

INTENSIVE RESCUING EXPECTED

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Rescue work in the country's bituminous coal fields today was expected to be extensive but not on a scale that would bring anything like normal production according to statements of United Mine Workers of America leaders and coal mine operators.

In some sections the miners were expected to dispute the authority of the U. M. W. president by John L. Lewis, and the president of the organization, according to the strike order. The U. M. W. of America leaders and coal mine operators.

THE YOUNG LADY ACROSS THE WAY

For some reason or another, though folks aren't kidding, weather around these parts takes on a contrary aspect to the hope that's handed out. So just to keep a good thing going, here's a little prediction on a cold wave:

CHITTO—Fair tonight and Thursday with a cold wave.

The extremes in local temperature today were: High, 37; low, 16.

OHIOAN HEADS PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT

POLES WIN ELECTION

BERLIN, Nov. 12.—(Via London)—Reports that municipal elections in Upper Silesia were favorable to the Poles were officially confirmed here today. The Poles secured 61 percent of the votes in the Hindenburg district; 78 percent on the average in the Deutsch, and 83 percent in the Tarnowitz district.

FOUR PERCENT BEER PLACED ON DRAUGHT

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 12.—Judge Arthur L. Brown, in the federal district court here today issued a temporary injunction against Harry A. Baker, U. S. attorney, and George F. Shumacher, collector of internal revenue, restraining them from enforcing the provisions of the war time prohibition act. The injunction was issued on the petition of the Narragansett Brewing Company. The sale of four percent beer was immediately resumed by Providence liquor dealers.

The court in handing down its decision said:

"In view of the probability that the act in question will ultimately be held unconstitutional and of the irreparable damage that would result from its enforcement, the court is of the opinion that it is proper to issue the injunction requested by the plaintiff's right to a preliminary injunction is clear."

The decree will be entered tomorrow when it will be made effective.

REFERENDUM SUSTAINED

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 12.—The state supreme court today upheld the Franklin county court in referring to enjoin Secretary of State Smith from submitting the federal women's suffrage amendment to a referendum next year. In a similar case the court previously had refused to enjoin the secretary from submitting the federal prohibition amendment which apparently has been defeated at the recent election.

The case involved the federal prohibition amendment is now before the United States supreme court but, it is said may be reached by the court as a moot question because the amendment has already been rejected.

Both cases were instituted by Geo. S. Haines of Columbus. The suffrage case probably will be taken to the federal supreme court.

The Women's Suffrage amendment was rejected by the voters at the recent election because the referendum would have not expired between the legislative action in refusing the amendment and time for holding the election. It will be voted upon next November unless the United States supreme court holds that federal amendments are not subject to a referendum.

ALLEGED ANARCHIST ARRESTED

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 12.—Six more alleged anarchists are a woman were taken into custody here last night by federal agents. There are five men, two Croatians and the woman is a German. Fourteen alleged anarchists have been arrested during the campaign here and only three have been released.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 12.—

John F. Kramer, an attorney of Mansfield, Ohio, has been appointed federal prohibition commissioner in direct charge of the enforcement of war time and constitutional prohibition.

Mr. Kramer, who formerly was a member of the Ohio legislature, telegraphed Senator Pomeroy, Democrat, of Ohio, today, accepting the appointment and announcing that he would begin his duties next week. The commissioner will work under the bureau of internal revenue and will have charge of the field force, which will be used in enforcing both the temporary and constitutional dry laws.

Daniel C. Roper, commissioner of internal revenue, today made public plans for enforcement of prohibition. Mr. Kramer will have as aids an executive field force of nine supervising federal prohibition agents and a prohibition director in each state. The supervising federal agents will have jurisdiction over nine territorial units into which the country has been divided.

Under the direction of the supervising agents will be a mobile force of federal agents, which will be sent from one point to another as conditions warrant.

Headquarters of the supervising federal agent, although not definitely decided upon probably will be located as follows:

Adams, New York; New York City; Richmond, Virginia; Philadelphia, Atlanta, Chicago, Omaha, Little Rock, Arkansas, and San Francisco. The departments or units over which their jurisdiction will extend are to be known as the Northeastern, New York, Eastern, Southern, Gulf, Central, Northwest, Southwestern and Pacific. Ohio is placed in the eastern department with New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia.

Kentucky is placed in the southern department with Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and West Virginia.

"The policy of the bureau of internal revenue will be to reinforce local efforts to the extent necessary to secure proper enforcement of the law," Mr. Roper said. "No state, county or municipal officer will be relieved of responsibility and every officer of the federal government of every state, county and city must be surcharged with the full responsibility of a prohibition enforcement officer."

"While the duty of ascertaining conditions in the several states will rest primarily upon the shoulders of the federal prohibition directors, the supervising agents, upon their own initiative, will make independent investigations in ascertaining of violations of the prohibition laws co-operating with the directors and local authorities. Inspectors will give particular attention to the manufacture and sale of denatured alcohol to the business of distillers who prescribe and druggists who sell liquor and of salaried persons in the treatment of persons suffering from alcoholism to the business of persons who manufacture, import or sell wine for sacramental purposes, and to all places where liquor of any kind is possessed or stored."

"Directors will keep in constant touch with the governors and attorneys general of the various states, to which they are assigned, and enlist their co-operation in all state and local authorities in the enforcement of the law. Frequent conferences will be conducted between directors, sheriffs and prosecuting officers and with mayors, chiefs of police and other municipal officers."

PETITION CLOTURE TO LIMIT DEBATE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 12.—A movement to limit senate debate on the peace treaty by invoking the cloture was inaugurated today by Democratic leaders. A petition for cloture, requiring but 16 signatures for submission, was circulated by the administration leaders and soon had more than double the necessary number. Some Republican leaders said they would support the Democratic cloture proposal, which had been circulated after consultation between leaders of both parties.

The petition said that in the opinion of the signers there was an effort to obstruct the treaty by undue debate, hindering each speaker's time to one hour, be invoked.

When the petition would be presented was not determined by the administration leaders, who said it was in conference with the recent Democratic conference, authorizing Senator Hitchcock, administration leader, to make such a move if it should be deemed advisable.

Adoption of cloture requires a two-thirds vote. While all of the signers of the cloture petition were Democrats, Senator Underwood, Democrat, Alabama, who circulated the petition, said it was assured of considerable Republican support.

WRECK HALL OF RADICALS

OAKLAND, CAL., Nov. 12.—A crowd of citizens entered the headquarters of the communist labor party in Loring hall early today and wrecked the interior of the place. Large quantities of radical literature, red flags and furniture were burned in the streets by the mob.

The mob was said to have consisted of 500 former service men and members of the American Legion. The offices of the "World," a Socialist organ, situated in the building, also was wrecked.

The communist labor party is said to be a new radical organization here. The wrecking of the communist headquarters was carried out in methodical fashion and with such swiftness that by the time the police arrived on the scene, the crowd had dispersed and none could be identified as having been connected with the raid.

ATTEMPT AT REVOLUTION WHICH COUNTRY FEARED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 12.—The shooting of four ex-servicemen in an Armistice day parade in Centralia, Washington, was described in the house today by Representative Johnson, Republican, Washington, chairman of the immigration committee, as "an attempt at revolution with bullets and rifles, which the country has long feared."

Mr. Johnson sent a telegram to Mayor Rogers, of Centralia, saying the country must be "purged of seditionists and revolutionists to the last one, and if this means war, the quicker it was declared, the better."

"We, of the Pacific northwest have long seen it coming," he said. "We have been patient, have avoided bloodshed under every provocation, only to see these young men murdered. Their death will arouse the loyal people of the United States as nothing else has done."

"History will record these heroes as among the first to fall in an attempt at armed revolution against the United States and for which every man who has been preaching syndicalism, communism and class hatred is responsible."

STOCKS BREAK WITH CRASH

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Panic in the stock market broke with a crash at 1:30 o'clock today. No group in the list was spared. General Motors fell below 300 and Crucible Steel dropped to 212 1/2.

Brokers reported it was almost impossible to borrow money at any price and as a result stocks were thrown overboard for whatever they would bring. Bids held up fairly well but they had not shared in the rapid advance of industrialists during the year. The market became completely demoralized in the last hour when call money rose to 30 percent, the highest rate since the panic of 1907. Over night losses of 10 to 25 points were scattered throughout the list and General Motors showed a decline of 65 points.

There were feeble rallies later when call loans fell to 25 percent, but the tone at the close was extremely weak. Sales were estimated at 2,500,000 shares, a record for the year.

MARTIAL LAW IN MINING DISTRICTS

BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 12.—Governor Lynn J. Frazier today declared martial law in the coal mining districts of North Dakota, and announced that he would take over the militia force of the state, which have been closed for several days on account of a strike of the 15,000 miners.

In his proclamation, the governor ordered Adjutant General Fraser to assume charge of the industry of the state, to see to it that the mines were reopened at once and that the people are supplied with coal as soon as possible. All persons interfering with production in the mines are to be arrested and kept under guard until the operators and miners reach an agreement.

Went reached the capital late last night, and announced that the miners would not return to their posts in the coal mines of the state, which have been closed for several days on account of a strike of the 15,000 miners.

DEMOCRATIC LEADER IN SENATE DIES

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Nov. 12.—Senator Thomas S. Martin, the Democratic leader in the senate, died here today after an illness of several months. He was 72 years old.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Nov. 12.—Careful examination of the ammunition seized with nine military rifles at Daws, W. Va., by deputy sheriffs today, disclosed the presence of some 300 soft-necked dum-dum bullets among the regular cartridges, it was announced at Governor Cornwell's office this afternoon.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Nov. 12.—Deputy sheriffs, acting on an executive warrant issued by Governor Cornwell today, seized a quantity of arms and ammunition in the office at Daws, a mining village in the Cabin Creek district, today. The arms were consigned to a miner living in Daws.

ONE RADICAL HANGED; MANY PLACED UNDER ARREST AFTER ATTACK

CENTRALIA, WASH., Nov. 12.—National guardsmen are patrolling Centralia today where yesterday four members of the American Legion were killed when an Armistice day parade was fired on by men said to be members of the Industrial Workers of the World. Seventeen alleged Industrial Workers are in jail. The secretary of the union, Edith Smith, was lynched by unidentified men, and his body riddled with bullets last night.

Smith's body, which was hanging from a bridge after two undertakers refused to handle it, had disappeared this morning and it was said the rope had been cut, allowing the corpse to drop into the river.

The reason for the attack, which came as the head of the parade swung past I. W. W. headquarters today had not been developed fully, but Herman Allen, an attorney, and member of a committee of former service men, and others co-operating with the authorities in an investigation, said evidence had been obtained that it was premeditated.

Citizens today planned to drive all radicals from Centralia. American Legion members expressed determination that every I. W. W. must leave the city.

One of the twenty men arrested in the sweeping search for I. W. W. following the attack, was said to have confessed plans were made months ago to "get" Warren Gritam and Arthur McElfresh, two of those killed, and William Schales and Captain David Livingston. The four had been active in suppressing radical activities in this community.

Without warning bursts of rifle fire swept the ranks of unrelenting overseas veterans as they paraded past I. W. W. headquarters. From that building and the roof of a building across the street bullets came. Persons in the crowds that lined the street to honor the returned soldiers also drew weapons and began firing.

Gritam, leading a company of men, dropped, mortally wounded. McElfresh, marching in the ranks, was killed instantly. Ben Cosgraff died later from his wounds. John Earl Watt, George Stegans, Jacob Philander and E. Edwards also fell wounded, the first named probably fatally. Stevens was shot when he attempted to disarm an I. W. W. standing on the street.

The fourth death of a parader was added when Dale Hubbard, recently returned overseas man, gathered a small band and started after the I. W. W. secretary. Hubbard and the fugitive grappled after a chase, in which Smith fired repeatedly at his pursuers. As they clinched Hubbard received four wounds in the body.

Another pursuer overpowered Smith and he was taken to jail, later to be removed and hanged after citizens learned that four of the former soldiers had died. An attempt to lynch Smith was made before he was lodged in the jail.

"You fellows can't hang me," he said. "I was sent to do my duty and I did it."

Smith was tossed from a bridge over the Chehalis river, after a rope was tied about his neck and a volley of bullets sent into his body. The lynching party worked silently and in darkness, while taking him from the jail.

Governor Hart today was enroute to the capital from the eastern part of the state. His only statement was:

"There will be no mob rule at Centralia."

From Yakima today came a report that members of the American Legion there were discussing formation of a secret order within the legion designed to combat radicalism.

The Centralia police force consists of only five paid members and they were powerless in the face of the great odds against them, both in combatting the I. W. W.'s and in defending Smith before he was hanged.

Hand bills were posted by Centralia authorities in all parts of the city today asking residents to report knowledge of the shooting or of any I. W. W. they may have. A drive has been launched to clear the I. W. W. from Centralia. It was said, and former service men who came here in the night from neighboring towns are to be used in the work.

One woman is in the jail. She conducted a hotel in which the I. W. W. was located. According to one version, she, with her husband, when the paraders started to ransack the place, ran out carrying small American flags and demanding protection. The men, it was said, took the flags from them.

Centralia has been combating a radical element here for several years, and yesterday's shooting was the climax of a series of conflicts. Two years ago when the first Red Cross bazaar was held here, it was reported that I. W. W. intended to dynamite the hall in which the affair was conducted. At that time citizens burned the fixtures in the hall and drove the secretary from town.

Recently a "protective league" was organized. Every I. W. W. was to be listed. It was planned, and ordered to be carried out, as a direct answer to the attacks.

For some reason or another, though folks aren't kidding, weather around these parts takes on a contrary aspect to the hope that's handed out. So just to keep a good thing going, here's a little prediction on a cold wave:

CHITTO—Fair tonight and Thursday with a cold wave.

LETTISH TROOPS PUSH BACK THE RUSS FORCES

DORPAT, LITHONIA, Nov. 12.—(By the A. P.)—Lettish troops in the region near Riga attacked the Germano-Russian forces of Colonel Bernhardt yesterday and pushed them back several miles along the entire line. The Lettish conference and the Baltic states conference here were adjourned today.

There was a report current today that several former soldiers had quietly organized a party and left in automobiles for Mouloua, a mining town four miles northeast of here, to arrest Governor alleged I. W. W. working in coal mines there. It was reported that one of the men who shot the parader yesterday had taken refuge at Mouloua.

Teams Formed For C. Of C. Campaign

A great deal depends, in the present Chamber of Commerce Campaign, on the efficiency of the team organization. It is these men who make the actual personal appeal for membership in the new Chamber, and to them, for giving up their time and energy, the gratitude of the whole community is due. Without them all the weeks of preparation for the campaign would be useless, and with their help it is expected that the new organization will have an initial membership of not less than one thousand members, and it is confidently expected, by some members of the Executive Committee that the figure will run over fifteen hundred.

A huge chart is being prepared in the Campaign Headquarters, which will show the names of the majors, captains, and team workers by teams, as soon as the organization is perfected. This chart will be exhibited in some public place where all can read and become acquainted with the names of the men who are to make possible Portsmouth's new Chamber of Commerce.

Out of a total of twenty four teams, twenty one have already volunteered. A large number of workers have also volunteered their services, and it is fully expected that by the time the teams explain meet in conference at the Mink's Club Wednesday noon, a sufficient number of men will have volunteered to make possible the completion, at that time, of the team organization.

The officers already enlisted are: Majors W. W. Anderson and G. E. Carlyle; Captains George Ahrend, John Bazer, Chas. Brierley, Louis Bragdon, Wm. Part, Marvin Clark, John Flood, Floyd Fuller, L. P. Halderman, Ben Hitchcock, Wm. Inman, Ralph Marling, George McElhannon, Dave Mitchell, G. A. Patton, Wm. H. Schwartz, John G. Sommer, Roger Selby, Dan Thomas, Wm. Trischeller, and J. P. Tancy.

THOMAS BURTON, MALONETON FARMER, SHOT TWICE BY HIS FATHER-IN-LAW

Thomas Burton, aged 38, well known farmer, who resides at Maloneton, Ky., back of Fulton was shot twice last night by his father-in-law, William Nimley.

Burton was not seriously wounded. One bullet from a 32 calibre revolver struck his head just back of the left ear and the other struck a rib on his right side. Only flesh wounds were inflicted in both instances and according to Dr. W. S. Morris of Fulton, who is attending Burton, his condition will not be serious unless blood poisoning should develop.

According to a report, which reached this city today Burton and Nimley recently quarreled over the division of some rent money and when they met near the burned Mill on "Tipton Creek" they renewed their controversy.

Burton told Dr. Morris today that it ended when Nimley, who is 35 years old, pulled out his revolver and shot three times at him at close range. He dodged the first bullet and attempted to grab the gun but Nimley pulled the trigger again and one bullet hit Burton behind the left ear and one struck his right side but luckily was deflected by a rib.

Burton stated today that he tried to make up with his father-in-law, but the latter refused to forgive and forget and shot him without provocation. Both men are well known in the vicinity of the shooting and have always borne splendid reputations. Greenup authorities have been notified about

Crowds are Enthusiastic about the Cleveland Six

The crowds which have filled our store from day to day to see the new Cleveland Six have admired it beyond measure. They have proclaimed it the great car of the year, the car which will surely dominate the whole light car field. Those who have ridden in it, or driven it through hard tests say, "It's a regular automobile."

The Cleveland is an extraordinary car of power, pickup, speed and comfort, compact in its design and construction, yet roomy, and unusually economical in cost of operation.

The men who build the Cleveland Six are men of broad and successful experience in the finest of motor car manufacture, and into their car they have built their skill and integrity. For three years before they announced this car to the public they put it through all conceivable tests in shop and laboratory and on the road. And when they did announce it, it was Ready.

Sues For Divorce

The Enquirer of local interest Tuesday said:
"In her suit for divorce from August Heyob, to whom she was married at Portsmouth, Ohio, February 6, 1916, Nora Heyob says Heyob had another wife living when he married her. She states he was convicted of bigamy last spring in the Scioto county courts, and was sentenced to the Ohio Penitentiary, where he now is confined. She seeks to have her maiden name, Walker, restored to her."

Taken To Penitentiary
James Thompson, young Poud Run farmer, who was convicted on a charge of second degree murder by a jury in common pleas court recently and sentenced to life imprisonment in the penitentiary, was transferred from the county jail to the big prison at Columbus today. Sheriff Riker taking the prisoner up on the early N. & W. train.

The crime for which Thompson was convicted was the killing of Louis Metzger, following a dispute over a division of a patch of potatoes. Thompson also shot and killed Ed Metzger, brother of his first victim. The double tragedy occurred at Poud Run on the afternoon of Sept. 25. Because of his youth, an effort will soon be made to have Thompson transferred from the Columbus prison to the Mansfield Reformatory.

SPLITTING HEAD ACHES WITH AN ACID STOMACH

Genuine weight in this statement. Mr. Lacy's many friends read with keen interest his account of Nerv-Worth's work in his behalf, as stated in Springfield's Nerv-Worth drug lists:
"Trompe Drug Co.—For a year I have been so troubled with severe, splitting headache and an acid stomach that I could hardly sleep. Could not eat with any satisfaction. After taking one bottle of Nerv-Worth I can eat and sleep as well as anyone and I can cheerfully recommend it to anyone who suffers with stomach trouble or a run-down system."

To Enlarge Hospital
IRONTON, Nov. 12.—Dr. W. F. Martin has made arrangements to secure plans for an addition to the hospital to be built at an early date and which will add quite a number of rooms to this flourishing institution. While the addition is being prepared, Dr. Martin expects to make some provisions in the hospital in order to accommodate a few more patients as every bed in the house is now filled.

ON the morning of February 26th, 1779, General Israel Putnam, the lion-heart of the American Revolution, stood before a mirror in the home of General Meade in Greenwich, Connecticut, his good, old-fashioned razor poised for the first long, shearing stroke. Suddenly he saw in the glass the figures of enemy cavalry sent to capture him. Acting for once in his impetuous life "on reflection", he leaped on his horse, his face still white with lather, and escaped down the perilous rocky stairway on what is now "Put's Hill"—to alarm his soldiers and disperse the enemy.

To just such rugged characters we owe the precious liberty that we have been helping to secure for the world today. And to just such common-sense razors as "Old Put's" we owe the most convenient and safest of all modern shaving implements—the guarded and detachable double-edged blade of the

Bird-Like Notes Of Galli-Curci Delight Appreciative Audience

Belated to the appearance of Galli-Curci in Huntington last night, whose wonderful singing was enjoyed by many people, the Herald-Dispatch of that city this morning, said:
"The rosiest expectations—even the rosiest predictions, were surpassed by the Galli-Curci at the Auditorium last night."
The largest crowd in the history of the Auditorium assembled there and enjoyed in the fullest a program that was entirely to its taste.

The prima donna won her audience to herself as well as to her art, for Mrs. Galli-Curci was a charming presence, and truly gracious.

The verdict was one of unanimous approval, the great audience remaining in place and applauding after the last magnificent number of the program, "The Mad Scene of 'Leporello'." After repeated acknowledgments of the applause, Madame Galli-Curci returned to the platform, bearing in her hand a long sheet of music. Taking her place at the piano she played her own accompaniment as she sang, "Chanson de l'Alceste," "Hauts des Alpes." And the crowd, she threw kisses at the applauding people, as she left the platform for the last time.

Impression of the sort that now wears out.

With Madame Galli-Curci were Mat and Margaret, sister, who accompanied her in several of her numbers, and rendered a solo in the course of the program, and Homer Samuels, pianist.

Yesterday was a gala day in Huntington—a real holiday. People came from a radius of two hundred miles, perhaps more, to attend the Galli-Curci concert. The last seat in the Auditorium was sold before noon, and it was a special permission of the city authorities, Alfred Wiley, under whose auspices the artist appeared here, placed an hour and a half in length, left an impression of the sort that now wears out.

Eat Well and Feel Well

By Taking Vinol

It creates a hearty appetite, aids digestion, creates thousands of new red blood corpuscles, the glow of health replaces pallid cheeks, anemia disappears and strength and vigor returns.

These Letters Prove It
West Chester, Pa.—"My blood was so poor that I had skin eruptions and was weak, nervous and could not sleep. My mother wanted me to try Vinol. It purified and enriched my blood, gave me a good appetite, my nervous system has gone, as it has built up my whole system. I can surely recommend it to others who need a good blood tonic."—MRS. EDWIN S. GUTHRIE.
For all run-down, nervous, unsatisfactory conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, there is no remedy like Vinol. Your money will be returned if Vinol fails—

Press Praises "Katch Koo"

Katch-Koo is called an Oriental Fantasia and is said to be both brilliant and entertaining, all of which will be proved at the three performances presented at the High School auditorium the evenings of Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The play is being given under the auspices of the P. H. S. Athletic Association. Seat reservations closed at Brandon Book Store Monday afternoon at 2:30, at which time reservations were made for the Thursday performance of Katch-Koo. Tuesday afternoon seats for Friday night were reserved, Wednesday afternoon seats will be reserved at Brandon's after 2:30 for the Saturday night show. Katch-Koo has made successful appearance in a number of cities in Ohio. The Standard Journal at Freeport, Ill., says of it that it is "one whirlwind of wit and music." The News-Sentinel of Port Wayne, Ind., says that "There are no dull moments which so often mar amateur plays."

Bible Class Organizes

Every indication is that the Men's Bible class rally once a month will be a big success. Three delegates from each Sunday School in the city met Monday night at the Second Presbyterian church and partly organized by electing the following officers, O. M. Howland, president; John E. Williams, first vice president; J. A. Wheeler, treasurer. The organization will be completed next Monday night when another meeting will be held at the Second church. It was decided last night to elect a board of directors one to be elected from each Sunday school next Sunday morning. The men elected and the officers will form the board of directors. At next Monday night's meeting plans will also be made for the first big rally of Men's Bible Classes.

MUST TURN IN EXPENSE ACCOUNTS

Candidates at the recent election are requested to turn in their expense accounts to the board of elections before November 14. This must be done whether candidates spent any money or not.

File Your Expense Accounts

Election laws of Ohio under the subtitle of "filing statements under corrupt practices law" says: "Every candidate voted for at the recent election and every person, committee or association, who contributed, promised, received or expended any money or thing of value in connection with such election, must not later than midnight of Friday, Nov. 14, file in the office of the clerk of the board of elections, J. H. Joiner, an itemized, verified statement thereof, and all liabilities incurred, to be open to public inspection and retained in the office for not less than four years. Vouchers (receipts) for expenditures in excess of $10.00 to any one person, to be filed with the statement. Individuals other than candidates making only contributions which must be accounted for by others need not file the statement." Statements of expenses incurred in connection with the state wide propositions must be filed with the secretary of state.

MRS. EFFIE WALKER IS FIRST WOMAN TO JOIN THE NEW CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The first woman to sign a membership application for the new Chamber of Commerce was Mrs. Effie Walker, one of the most prominent of the Portsmouth Red Cross workers during the war. Mrs. Walker entered Campaign Headquarters yesterday afternoon and after expressing her desire to sign an application, said: "I believe that every woman taxpayer of Portsmouth should become a member of the Chamber of Commerce. Not that the other women of Portsmouth are not as interested as those who own property, and I believe that they should join, too, but it is to the decided interest of the tax payer to have an active part in any good project that may be undertaken for the city." "I believe that the first thing to be undertaken by the Chamber of Commerce should be the extension of sewers to the property now inside the city limits which is not yet reached by the existing ones. The cleaning of the streets and the increase of the police force should also be advocated."

Seborrhea Kills the Hair Famo Kills Seborrhea

Seborrhea is an old trouble to which scientists have given a new name.

And science has found in Famo a new way of overcoming it.

Seborrhea is the disease which kills the roots of the hair by means of the deadly dandruff bacilli.

It does to the hair what pyorrhea does to the teeth.

Famo is a formula worked out in one of the recognized pharmaceutical laboratories of Detroit.

Three years were required to develop Famo.

It proved its efficacy before it was offered to the public.

The way in which Famo does its work is almost unbelievable.

Transformation is Wonderful

Almost at once your eyes testify to the transformation.

New hair grows like the hair of healthy children.

The scalp becomes like the scalp of a baby. All itching of the scalp is stopped.

Famo brings back the look of health by a softness and lustre beyond words to describe.

Famo Destroys Bacilli

Famo removes the obstacle to growth, when it kills the seborrhea (dandruff) bacilli.

Freed from the bondage of disease, the hair keeps into luxuriance.

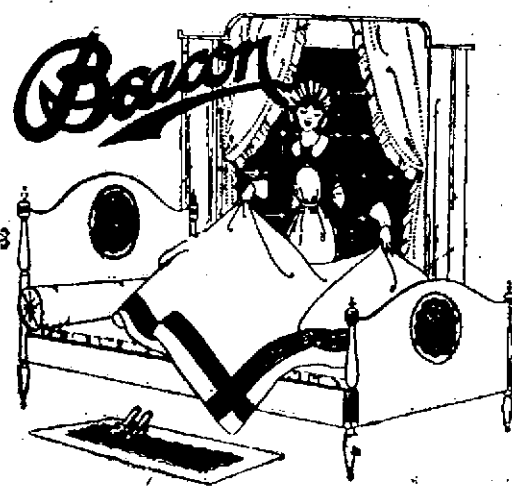

In women the change is wonderful.

If their hair was normally beautiful, the beauty is intensified.

Mr. Law First To Join Chamber Of Commerce

Monday evening, at five o'clock, the first application for membership in the Chamber of Commerce of Portsmouth was signed. Mr. George Law, who is in the office of the Campaign Headquarters, announced that he was the first to join. He was immediately furnished with a pen and ink, and in less than five minutes he had written the first citizen out of forty thousand to put in writing his desire to cooperate with other citizens who have the best interests of Portsmouth at heart. In years to come, one tradition will be handed down from one generation of the Law family to another, that an ancestor of theirs was the first man to actively enter into the membership of the Chamber of Commerce of Portsmouth, Ohio, that great organization whose efforts are so largely responsible for the Portsmouth of today.

Although the active drive for membership does not start until Tuesday, November 18th, applications will not be refused from anyone who manifests a desire to sign up. "That is one way of showing your progressive spirit," said the Campaign Director today. "Don't wait for the Chamber of Commerce to come to you; come to the Chamber of Commerce!"

Universal's Great Picture of Newspaper Life and the Stage, "The Woman Under Cover," at the Exhibit Tonight and Tomorrow. Also William Duncan in "Smashing Barriers"

A mysterious murder in a popular theater where the idol of the hour is found dead in his dressing room after a violent quarrel with his wife; an enterprising girl reporter on a live newspaper; a handsome city editor, and the girl reporter's maid-in-brother, who has star in furnishing hundreds of laughs. "The Studio Girls" is a Charles Murray and Pelly Moran riot, which will be followed by "Our Lovely Night" featuring Neal Burns and Josephine Hill.

Don't Fail To See This Special Production At The Columbia Theatre—
tonight and Tomorrow—
A story of Parks, of his ebullience, his artists' studios, his poverty and riches and temptations, "The Virtuous Model" holds the attention every minute. Miss Cassinelli's role is the sympathetic one of the girl of lowly birth whose virtues won for her the love of the great sculptor after he had found a Louisiana Countess unworthy.

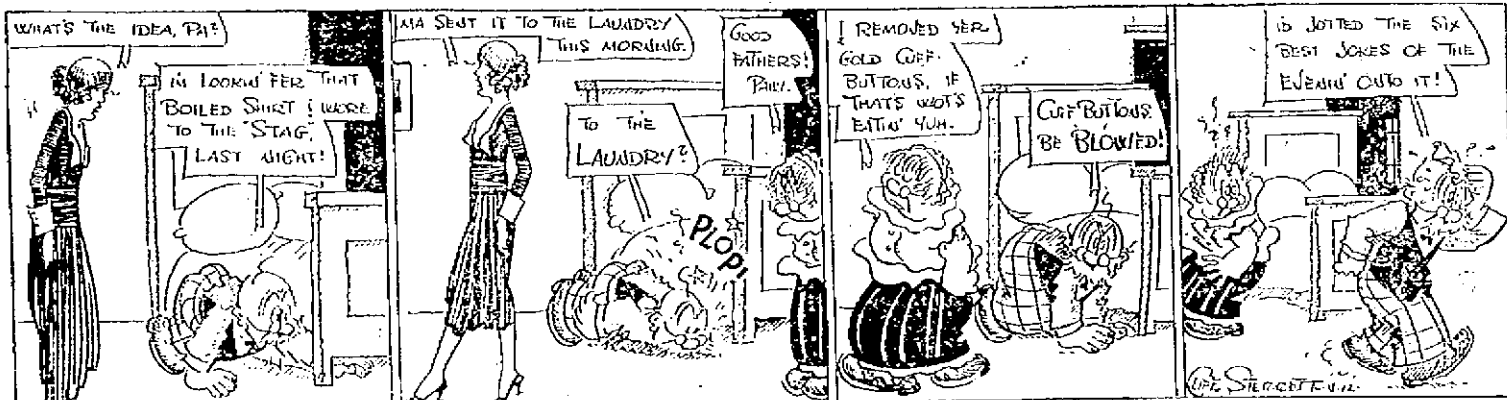

The cast, while small in numbers, is large in talent. Leading support is given the star by Vincent Serrano, favorite of the stage. Franklin Parrish, star of many features, and Marie Chambers, one of the few blonde vaudevises of the screen, have important roles, while smaller portrayals are in the capable hands of May Hopkins, Helen Lowell and Paul Donnet.

The committee having in charge the Civic dinner to be served Thursday evening at the United Brethren church under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce, is very desirous that all who have been sent invitations to the spread, mail their acceptance by noon today. It is not too late. While there is no question but the affair will be a great success, nevertheless acceptances have not been coming in as promptly as the committee had hoped. It is practically imperative that the committee know at noon Wednesday the number of guests who will attend the banquet, so the women who are to serve the dinner will know how much provisions to prepare.

Rev. George P. Horst of Second Presbyterian church has gone to Philadelphia to spend a week with friends. Next Sunday the Second church pulpit will be occupied by Rev. W. L. Smallhorst of Philadelphia. Tonight C. E. Dowling will lead prayer meeting.

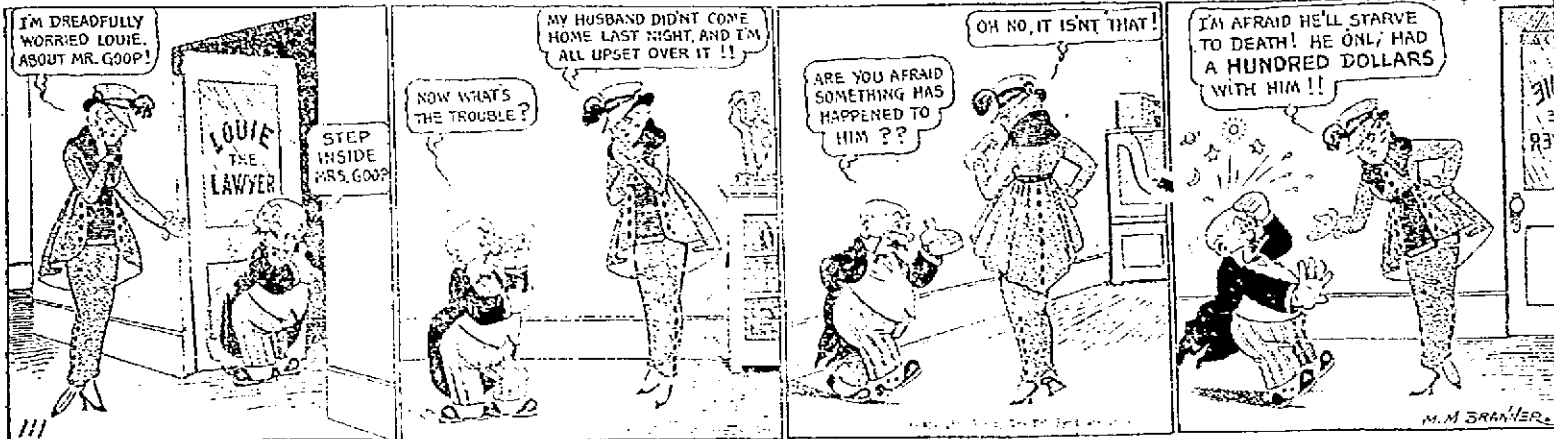

Dr. Horst was located in Philadelphia before coming to Portsmouth and has many friends there.

JES WILLARD, The Man You Have Read About So Much, Will Be at the Strand Tonight in "The Challenge of Chance"—A Play That Is a Real Knokout.

"The Challenge at Chance," the Strand tonight shows Jess Willard as big hearted rough foreman who throws up his job to become a horse buyer with an El Paso horse exchange. Arriving in Texas he learns that the firm he is to join is in league with Villa and that the head of the firm is none other than Burr whom he had given a terrible punishment for beating a horse.

Jess is about to throw up his job when Fay Calvert, a beautiful Kentucky girl, whom he met on the train tells him that Burr is attempting to swindle her out of a string of thoroughbred race horses, her sole legacy from her father. The two of them plan to outwit the bandits and an thrilling race track scene and finish in which Jess comes out victorious after scrapping single handed with a score of Mexicans their methods a bit vain.

Through such situations as these the strong character of Jess is brought out up to the final scene where he generously gives up the girl to a childhood sweetheart. The picture replete with big scenes, including a wonderful horse race, Villa's attack on Juaraz, Jess delivering a knockout and a score of horses, herded by daring cowboys, swarming the Rio Grande. The prices are adults 2 children 10c.

Open Bids Next Monday

Men and women, girls and boys crowded the auditorium of the Terminal Y. M. C. A. Tuesday evening for the Armistice Day program, held there. Chairs were brought in from the dining room to accommodate the people and the pool tables were used for seats for some. The program was especially interesting.

Rev. L. L. Averitt made a stirring address, patriotic songs were sung by the audience and Carlos Fries rendered two solos which were enthusiastically received. Refreshments were served to the crowd at the close of the program.

Rev. Huxley is gratified with the response given to his Y. M. C. A. program.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 12.—Three contests of unusual importance feature Western Conference football this week end. Of the trio of games, the engagement between Ohio State, undefeated conference leaders, and Wisconsin, tied for fourth place in the race, will hold the spotlight of attention.

State two. Of prime importance will be the annual contest between Iowa and Chicago on Stagg field which should eliminate one of the two from championship consideration. The Illinois-Michigan game at Urbana will give Ohio State followers a line on the comparative strength of the Buckeyes and Illini, Ohio already having defeated Michigan.

Indiana journeys to Evanston for a clash with Northwestern. Purdue engages Duquesne at Lafayette, while Minnesota, the fourth member of the conference, is idle. Following is the standing of the Western Conference teams:

What kind of a shave did you get this morning?

YOUR shave this morning—was it quick and smooth, or slow and irritating?

When your razor blade is fresh, you get a smooth, comfortable shave. But very soon your beard begins to dull the edge—the blade begins to "pull" and scrape. It grows progressively worse—until you throw the blade away.

Why endure this annoyance? With the AutoStop Razor you can renew the fine, smooth edge of your blade for every shave.

A remarkable stropping device, simple and efficient, is built into the frame of the AutoStop Razor.

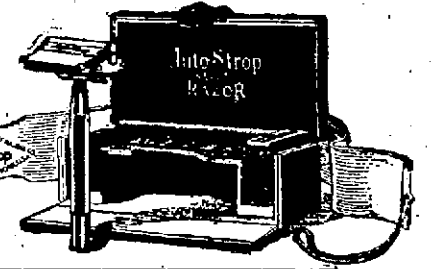

You don't have to take the razor apart or remove the blade. You simply slip the stop through the razor head. A few passes of the razor back and forth, and the blade is quickly, easily and perfectly sharpened.

You are guaranteed 500 clean, quick shaves from every dozen blades.

Begin tomorrow to get all the comfort of a fresh, keen edge for every shave. Ask your dealer today about the AutoStop Razor free trial plan.

"Turkey" Takes A Fall; Varga Defeats Opponent

Joe Varga defeated the Terrible Turk last night in straight falls, taking the first in 27 minutes and ten seconds, with a hammerlock and grapevine, in which the Turk's shoulder was injured so that he was only able to last five minutes in the second period. All The Late Novelties In Fall Suitings

Our work is our best advertisement—fit and workmanship spell our success.

THE THREE LITTLE TAILORS
 820 Gallia St. Phone 450 X

The daily rush of business, the daily travel in crowded trains and cars, the lack of opportunity for healthful exercise—all are conditions of city life.

City living conditions account for much of the time lost from business, for they contribute largely to the illness that has become so prevalent.

3,000,000 people sick on any given day—

Eight hundred million dollars wasted annually

STATISTICS show that the average man and woman in the United States can expect to be sick in bed more than a week out of every year. On the average, three million persons are ill on any day. The annual wage loss from illness is at least $800,000,000.

Who suffers the greatest part of this terrific loss?

People who live in cities!

The city dweller travels from home to office in crowded cars or trains. He seldom walks, or takes other exercise. Usually he works indoors, stooped over a desk, a machine or a counter. Indeed, medical men state that the average city worker uses no more than a third of his lung capacity—that about 400 muscles in his body have actually become weakened through disuse.

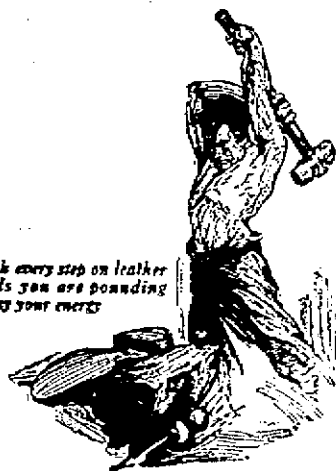

What is the result of this kind of life? Is it surprising that sickness is so prevalent? Is it surprising that the death rate in the city is higher than in the country by 21%?

Why city dwellers avoid walking

Walking, the one great exercise which every man should enjoy, has become a burden. Too often it contributes directly to that over-fatigued condition which makes the city dweller an easy prey to illness.

In his usual routine the average city worker takes 8,000 steps a day, on hard, modern floors and pavements. If you wear nail-studded leather heels, you give your body 8,000 jolts and jars a day—for every step with hard heels on still harder pavements acts as a hammer blow to your entire nervous system. The constant repetition of these shocks exhausts your energy, helps to bring an over-fatigue, with its ever-present threat of serious illness.

With every step on leather heels you are pounding away your energy.

The leather heel has outlived its usefulness—it is doomed. It has no more place on modern pavements than the wooden sandals of ancient days.

Yet walking on hard pavements need not be any more fatiguing than walking on turf. Walking can easily be made a pleasure and a benefit.

Modern pavements are built for modern traffic. You can't bring back the yielding dirt streets of many years ago—the streets for which leather heels were made, but you can cushion your feet against the jolts and jars that make walking a burden. You can replace hard, old-fashioned heels with O'Sullivan's Heels of live, springy rubber.

What gives a rubber heel "life"

It is not just the rubber that gives O'Sullivan's Heels their springiness and wearing qualities.

Rubber, as you know, can be made hard and brittle as in fountain pens or soft and crumbly as in pencil erasers. To secure the resiliency and durability of O'Sullivan's Heels, the highest grades of rubber are "compounded" with the best toughening agents known. The "compound" is then "cured" or baked under high pressure.

By this special process the greatest resiliency is combined with the utmost durability.

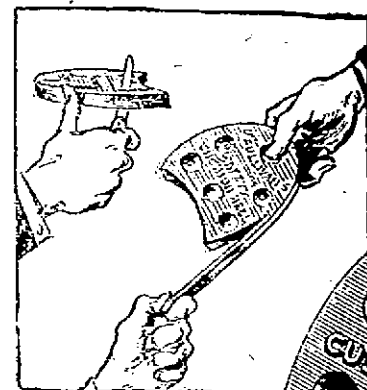

It is this special process that has, since the making of the first rubber heel, established O'Sullivan's Heels as the standard of rubber heel quality.

Guaranteed to outlast any other heels

O'Sullivan's Heels are guaranteed to wear twice as long as ordinary rubber heels; and will outlast three pairs of leather heels.

Go to your shoe repairer today and have O'Sullivan's Heels put on your shoes.

O'Sullivan's Heels are furnished in black, white or tan; for men, women and children. Specify O'Sullivan's Heels, and be sure that you get O'Sullivan's—avoid the disappointment of substitutes.

An O'Sullivan Heel can be cut and stretched as shown above. With an ordinary rubber heel the material snaps in two with little stretching. This test proves the remarkable resiliency and durability of O'Sullivan's Heels.

I. W. W. MEMBERS FIRE ON WAR VETERANS ON PARADE; KILL FOUR

Radical Hanged

CENTRALIA, WASH., Nov. 12.—State troops today patrolled this city, where, during Armistice day celebration yesterday, four members of the American Legion were shot and killed by men said to be members of the Industrial Workers of the World, and Brit Smith, secretary of the local branch of the I. W. W., was hanged by a mob.

The reason for the attack, which came as the head of the parade swung past I. W. W. headquarters, today had not been developed fully, but Herman Allen, an attorney and member of a committee of former service men, and others co-operating with the authorities in an investigation, said evidence had been obtained that it was premeditated.

Citizens today planned to drive all radicals from Centralia. American Legion members expressed determination that every I. W. W. must leave the city.

One of the twelve men arrested in the sweeping search for I. W. W. following the attack, was said to have confessed plans were made months ago to "get" Warren, Grimm and Arthur McElfresh, two of those killed, and William Schates and Captain David Livingston. The four had been active in suppressing radical activities in this community.

Without warning bursts of rifle fire swept the ranks of marching overseas veterans as they paraded past I. W. W. headquarters. From that building and the roof of a building across the street bullets came. Persons in the crowd that lined the street to honor the returned soldiers also drew weapons and began firing.

Grimm, leading a company of men, dropped, mortally wounded. McElfresh, marching in the ranks, was killed instantly. Ben Casagrande died later from his wounds. John Earl Watt, George Stevens, Jacob Philizer and E. Euland also fell wounded. The first named probably fatally. Stevens was shot when he attempted to disarm an I. W. W. standing on the street.

The fourth death of a parade was added when Dale Hubbard, recently returned overseas man, gathered a small band and started after the I. W. W. secretary, Hubbard and the first named, after a chase, in which Smith fired repeatedly at his pursuers. As they clinched Hubbard, received four wounds in the body.

Another pursuer, overpowered Smith and was taken to jail, later to be released and hanged after citizens learned that four of the former soldiers had died. An attempt to lynch Smith was made before he was lodged in the jail.

You fellows can't hang me! I said. I was sent to do my duty and I did.

Smith was tossed from a bridge over the Chehalis river, after a rage was let about his neck and a volley of bullets sent into his body. The lynching was worked silently and in darkness. We taking him from the jail.

WRECK HALL OF RADICALS

OAKLAND, CAL., Nov. 12.—A crowd of citizens entered the headquarters of the communist labor party in Loring hall early today and wrecked the interior of the place. Large quantities of radical literature, red flags and furniture were burned in the streets by the mob.

The mob was said to have consisted of 400 former service men and members of the American Legion. The offices of the "World," a Socialist organ, situated in the building, also was wrecked.

The communist labor party is said to be a new radical organization here. The wrecking of the communist headquarters was carried out in methodical fashion and with such swiftness that by the time the police arrived on the scene, the crowd had dispersed and none could be identified as having been connected with the raid.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 12.—Lieutenant Governor Clarence J. Brown, who is seriously ill from auto-intoxication at his home here, was reported somewhat improved this morning.

REFERENDUM IS AGAIN SUSTAINED

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 12.—The state supreme court today upheld the Franklin county court in enjoining the Secretary of State from submitting the federal woman's suffrage amendment to a referendum next year in a similar case the court previously had refused to enjoin the secretary from submitting the federal prohibition amendment which apparently has been defeated at the recent election.

The case involved the federal prohibition amendment is now before the United States supreme court but it is said may be treated by the court as a moot question inasmuch as the election has already been held.

Both cases were instituted by Geo. S. Hawks of Cincinnati. The suffrage case probably will be taken to the federal supreme court.

The woman's suffrage amendment was not submitted to the voters at the recent election because the referendum period had not expired between the legislature's action in ratifying the amendment and time for holding the election. It will be voted upon next November unless the United States supreme court holds that federal amendments are not subject to a referendum.

MINERS ARE RETURNING TO WORK

BOTH SIDES WILLING TO NEGOTIATE
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 12.—Secretary of Labor Wilson awaited today, the formal acceptance by the coal operators of his invitation to a conference of miners and operators here Friday for the purpose of negotiating a basis of settlement of their wage and working hour difficulties. The miners already have accepted the invitation and unofficially the operators have advised the secretary that they would comply with his request.

With the calling of the conference, Secretary Wilson resumes his post as mediator in the controversy between the miners and operators, which he was forced to abandon two weeks ago by the abrupt adjournment of the conference just preceding the strike. Better prospects for a settlement will be found in the new conference, it was declared by the removal of the strike threat, which was the main factor in the ending of the former negotiations.

Both sides have indicated their willingness to resume negotiations in an endeavor to adopt a pay scale that would send the miners back to their jobs willingly immediately and keep them there.

EXTENSIVE RESUMPTION EXPECTED

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Resumption of work in the country's bituminous coal mines today was expected to be extensive, but not on a scale that would permit anything like normal production, according to statements of United Mine Workers of America leaders and coal mine operators.

In some sections the miners were expected to dispute the authority of the order issued yesterday by John I. Lewis, acting president of the organization, recalling the strike order. The statement of Duncan McDonald, president of the Illinois Federation of Labor, that "if the position of the government is to be taken as a precedent, there is no such thing as freedom of contract and the entire issue might as well be fought out now," also was interpreted as being the sentiment of a portion of the approximately 425,000 men who went on strike nearly two weeks ago.

The situation in the Illinois fields was complicated further by the possibility of insurgents who caused trouble last summer, renewing their activities, according to the union men. In Kansas, where 10,000 men normally are employed, unrest was said to prevail, and it was doubtful if that state, already feeling a fuel shortage, would see a very considerable resumption of production immediately.

That many of the miners would return to work was agreed, notably in the Alabama, Texas, Ohio and Pennsylvania coal areas. The situation was doubtful in Iowa, Maryland, West Virginia, Indiana, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

LETITISH TROOPS PUSH BACK THE RUSS FORCES

DORPAT, LIVONIA, Nov. 12.—(By the A. P.)—Letitish troops in the region near Riga attacked the German-Russian forces of Colonel Bernhardt yesterday and pushed them back several miles along the entire line. The Letitish command and the Baltic states conference here were advised today.

AMERICANS TO LEAVE PARIS IN DECEMBER

PARIS, Nov. 12.—The American delegation to the peace conference has informed the supreme council of its intention to leave France during the first days of December, according to semi-official information from the French foreign office. The British peace delegation has also expressed the same desire and the general impression in French conference circles is that the conference will conclude its work by the end of this month.

FEW MEN REPORT FIRST DAY

TERRE HAUTE, IND., Nov. 12.—While coal mines in the Indiana fields were ready for operation today and miners' trains ran on regular schedule, few men reported for work and neither miners or operators look for anything like normal production for several days. Except for the fire in

TRAINMEN AND HINES NEGOTIATE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Representatives of the four railroad brotherhoods and Director General Hines resumed negotiations today on the brotherhood's demands of wage increases and revision of working conditions after they had failed to come anywhere near an agreement yesterday during the first day of discussion.

The railroad administration has refused the full demands of the railroad organizations and offered a substitute, which the brotherhoods so far have declined to accept. Director General Hines pointed out clearly that he could make no arrangement to further increase the pay of railroad employees because of the short time before the railroads will be returned to private ownership. The brotherhood leaders were said to have been impressed with his argument, and this was taken as an indication of their willingness to compromise.

TWO POINTS OF INTEREST

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Nov. 12.—Two outstanding points of interest in the coal mining situation today were the reception by the members of the United Mine Workers of America of the order of their chiefs, calling off the strike, and the probable outcome of the conference of miners' representatives and operators with Secretary of Labor Wilson Friday.

Reports on the number of men returning to work were slow in reaching international headquarters of the mine workers here, chiefly because the order rescinding the strike call of October 31 had not yet been received in many districts, and because many local unions will hold meetings before deciding whether to return to the mine.

Dispatches received up to this time, while not clearly defining the attitude of the men as a whole, were believed to indicate that the workers will continue on strike only in isolated cases. It was pointed out by miners' officials that several days would be required to determine to what extent their order had been obeyed.

MARTIAL LAW IN NORTH DAKOTA MINING DISTRICTS

BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 12.—Governor Lynn J. Frazier today declared martial law in the coal mining districts of North Dakota, and announced he would take over the lignite coal mines of the state, which have been closed for several days on account of a strike of the 1500 miners.

In his proclamation, the governor ordered Adjutant General Frasier to assume charge of the industry of the state, to see to it that the mines were reopened at once and that the people are supplied with coal as soon as possible. All persons interfering with production in the mines are to be arrested and kept under guard until the operators and miners reach an agreement in their dispute over wages.

Word reached the capital last night that the miners would not return to their posts in the coal mines though the strike had been officially called off by national officers, that they would return to work on the order of Governor Frazier.

The soldiers will not work in the mines, it was explained, but will guard the miners, returning to work, protect them from interference.

The miners demand a 60 percent increase in wages, which the operators have refused to grant.

TALKED ON EVERYTHING BUT RESERVATION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The reservation to Article 10 of the League of Nations covenant stood before the senate again today as the subject of the hour, exactly as it did at the opening of yesterday's session, which was consumed with seven hours of debate on various topics except the one under consideration.

Both the Republican and Democratic leaders were blaming the other for the delay and announced that an effort would be made today to get the senate back in line for action on the foreign relations committee reservations, so as to speed up the adjournment of the special session of congress.

If today passes without progress on the list of reservations, the prospects for adjournment Saturday seem remote.

ARMS FOR MINERS ARE SEIZED BY STATE OFFICIAL

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Nov. 12.—Deputy sheriffs, acting on an executive warrant issued by Governor Cressel today, seized a quantity of arms and ammunition from the express office at Duncansville, a mining village in the Cabin Creek district, today. The arms were consigned to a miner living in Duncansville and were received at the express office yesterday. Nine rifles and 1,000 pounds of ammunition were on the shipment. It was seized by Governor Cressel's office.

AN HONOR TO THE LIVING

THE purpose of the visit which Cardinal Mercier has just concluded to this country was two fold, to personally express to American citizens the gratitude the people of Belgium feel towards them for their noble sympathy and aid and to secure assistance in the rebuilding of Louvain university, of which he is the head.

The wonderful welcome he received here and the rapt attention with which he was heard, must convince him that the Belgians would have sent no more acceptable envoy, while the liberal funds bestowed on him that the service of a great nation springs not out of exceptionally moving circumstances but comes from the well-spring of generous hearts.

And there was no greater crime of its sort ever committed than the sack of Louvain by the Huns. It was an outrage upon the past, the present and the future. In this university were stored the richest treasures in literature, arts and science the vanished centuries ever produced, its equipment for modern education was unsurpassed. Of all inanimate things it was despoiled and plundered and its professors and teachers were thrown into prison or else forced to flee the country. Harshness and exile killed some and others are wrecks of their former luminous selves. Not even the lavish millions of America can make Louvain what it was. It will soon resume its high place as an educational institution, but not even the centuries can replace all that von Ludendorff and his kind so complacently allowed to be destroyed and stolen.

No doubt this good man, this fervid patriot, Cardinal Mercier returns to his country with his heart overflowing with gratitude and love for a wonderful people and to remember them in his prayers, but after all he is a simple, modest priest and we wonder what will be his thoughts and his feelings when he learns that during his absence his flock has formed all the plans, raised the necessary funds and engaged a renowned sculptor to carve of him a heroic statue, that will adorn a splendid new square that will be opened up in the capital city of Brussels. It is a fitting and typical honor because it is to the living and rises on the wreck of things, just as he, the living lifted Belgium from the ruin and oppression of an enemy, an enemy whom he, unarmored and quite alone, confronted and defied in all his arrogance and power and whom he eventually saw ignominiously vanquished.

NOW YOU SEE IT NOW YOU DO NOT

THE shell man with the show never juggled the pea more elusively than belated and corrected returns shift the figures of Ohio's vote on ratification of federal prohibition.

Not one day and then the next have Deacon White and Manager Gibson been alternately claiming victory, but each shift in hour they have jubilated in turn.

The odds now are that the Deacon is licked. He is demanding a recount, which is in itself a confession of defeat.

On that demand we are with him. Not that we think he will win there and for to our way of viewing it is immaterial which way the result is finally determined, since prohibition will still prevail either way, but because now, when nothing vital is at stake, is the best time to go into the returns, find where the errors are and provide against their recurrence for the future.

On the face those returns show a wide prevalence of carelessness and incompetency of election officials. Here a week has gone by without all of them being in and among such as have been sent in many gross and apparent errors have been discovered, ascribable to inefficiency rather than attempted fraud. Perhaps, a third of the counties reported inaccurate totals, some corrected before being sent in, but excepting these, the secretary of state had to send, back, Monday, to nine counties their returns so they might be properly amended.

Blunders so numerous and flagrant shake the confidence of the voters in the election machinery and have in them the possibility of serious consequences for the future.

By-the-way, the vote of the state at large shows no particular shifting of the vote on prohibition. It was claimed over-seas soldiers resented the state going dry when they could have no voice in the matter and it was also maintained prohibition had worked so satisfactorily that it would show a large gain in popularity. Neither contention was sustained by the ballot. In so far as the general result shows the soldier vote split about even, and the vaunted recruits from the wetts failed to appear. The majority on state prohibition was about the same as at its adoption last year.

Much goes by contraries in Spain. There the employers have locked out thousands and thousands of workers, who are rioting and precipitating a government crisis because they were not taken back.

Come to Portsmouth—finest climate in the world. Witness yesterday, but please regard not today.

The coal strike leaders are gracefully bowing to the mandate of the court in the injunction suit. That's nice, but sometimes a thing gracefully done is not sincerely meant.

The boom for General Leonard Wood was expected to be started off this week with a great beating of tom-toms. May be the returns of last week's election on the strap-shouldered candidates has caused a pause.

SHE MARRIED AN AVERAGE MAN

I have not yet found courage to tell the story of my marriage. Some pathetic little girl, Eric Sands is coming to America and that he will be visiting the artist, Peter Lantz, not half a mile from our home. Nor have I mentioned it to Athena Hall, though, of course, she will learn through Jim that Eric is an old friend of mine whom he has never seen.

Each day I say "I will tell Jim tonight" and each night, for some reason or other it seems impossible. Since the first ball Jim has been so much nearer—less formal, less stiff and dignified. Between the fact of Eric Sands' coming and my love for Jim I am in the real dilemma. Yes, I finally write my love for Jim, for I do love my husband.

Sometimes I think a woman cannot help loving the man she lives with, the man who depends on her for so many things, even though she does not respond to all the qualities that make up his character or personality. Women love whatever belongs to them, whether it is a favorite toy, a husband, a gown or a kitten. Yet so strongly complex is a woman, and so hungry for the love that truly understands, that she can rarely help reaching out for it, even while she keeps the other. There is maternal love, platonic love, romantic love.

But I must stop this incoherent thinking, thinking, thinking. It is fortunate I have my work. It keeps me from utterly losing my balance. Every morning the boy from the "Messenger" office brings me a stack of letters. Some show the awakening of thought that grooves for guidance. Some pathetically funny. Some merely frivolous, and many sad. The "Messenger" must have a varied subscription list, for among the correspondents are factory girls, society buds, business women, wives, mothers and—men.

A "Father of Three" writes to ask advice on what to do to make his wife get over the infatuation for the chauffeur and take care of her home and children.

I answered, urging him to search out the cause of the chauffeur's attraction for his wife, and to find out if he, the husband, either lacked it or allowed it to be obscured by qualities a woman does not value so highly. So interested did I get in elaborating my answer that I failed to see at the time how much like my own case the poor fellow's is.

But after all, a person cannot remake his character. The real tragedy in marriage is when a husband or wife sees love slipping away, with no chance of staying it. When a man or woman falls out of love with one, yet no other love is there, marriage does not become noticeably a failure. The couple "gets along." They continue to live together somehow, and people say: "Oh, it's an average happy marriage."

But worse comes when, at the moment of the old love's death, a new love rises. When the wife turns unsatisfied from the husband and meets the sympathetic eye of a chauffeur, for instance. Or an Eric's—

A Good Letter

Someone has advanced the opinion that the letter "e" is the most unfortunate letter in the English alphabet, because it is always out of cash, for ever in debt, never out of danger and in hell all the time. For some reason, he overlooked the fortuitous of the letter, as we call his attention to the fact "e" is never in war and always in peace. It is the beginning of existence, the commencement of ease and the end of trouble. Without it there would be no meat, no life and no heaven. It is the center of honesty, makes love perfect, and without it there could be no editors, devils nor news.—Exchange.

Justice Is Done

"Hello, Tom," said a man from the north who had returned to his birthplace for a brief visit. "I heard that Bill killed a man. Is it true?"

"Sure!" replied Tom. "He chased the fellow three days with a shot gun, finally got a good head on, him and killed him right through the ing."

"And killed him?" queried the northerner, with horror.

"You bet!"

"Well, how is it that they didn't lynch Bill for cold-blooded murder?"

"Well, the fellow that Bill shot didn't have a friend on earth, so the game warden just fined him $2 for hunting without a license."

Lead The Right One

An old-fashioned country lady and her son were driving into town in the family buggy when a huge automobile horse down upon them. The horse was badly frightened and began to prance, and the old lady promptly got out and waved wildly to the chauffeur, screaming in her excitement.

The chauffeur stopped the car and offered to help get the horse quiet again.

"That's all right," said the boy, who remained composedly in the carriage. "I can manage the horse. You just lead mother past."

Where His Face Finishes

"Poor old Alf!" sighed Mrs. Crimp, as the form of her husband vanished down the road. "He's growing shockin' bald."

"Yes, I've noticed it," assented her neighbor. "Ever since his last illness he's been molting, as you might say. I hope he ain't worryin' over it, Mrs. Crimp?"

"Well, it do bother him a bit," she admitted.

Send In Acceptance

The committee having in charge the Civic dinner to be served Thursday evening at the United Brethren church under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce, is very desirous that all who have been sent invitations to the spread, mail their acceptance by not later than Wednesday noon.

While there is no question but the affair will be a great success, nevertheless acceptances have not been coming in as promptly as the committee had hoped. It is practically imperative that the committee knows at noon Wednesday the exact number of people who will attend the banquet, so the women who are to serve the dinner will know how much provisions to prepare.

Talked Herself Into a Hole

"Well, really, I've just called to—"

"I know—I know! Now look at me. Yes, I see you have suffered many serious disappointments lately."

"That's correct."

"Hush! Something which you have striven for and signed for without avail will shortly come within your grasp."

"That's good!"

"Only be patient. Remember that the hard times are past, and that success is now yours."

"Thank you! You've relieved me immensely!" said the caller, diving his hand into his breast pocket. "I've been here about five times for last quarter's gas bill. I'm jolly glad to hear that I'm going to get it at last!"

DR. D. F. GARLAND

It Is Now Up To Wide Awake Citizens, Speaker Says At Big C. of C. Smoker

The Chamber of Commerce drive for membership assumed new proportions in the minds of many last evening when Dr. D. F. Garland, of Dayton, Ohio, talked to over three hundred on the "City of Tomorrow" at the City of C. Smoker.

Alan N. Jordan, chairman of the Chamber Executive Committee, presided at the gathering, and before presenting the speaker of the evening gave a brief outline of the possibilities of Portsmouth, which are, indeed, unlimited.

"Portsmouth," said Mr. Jordan, "is situated between the two greatest deposits of raw materials in the world, the iron mines of Minnesota and Northern Michigan, and the coal fields of Kentucky and West Virginia.

"Every important commercial center of Germany lies on a waterway, and it has proven that while high grade raw materials may be profitably moved by rail, the low grade grades must, for economy, be transported by water.

"A United States Government survey, made with a view to deciding the most practicable water route from the Great Lakes to the Ohio river, shows Portsmouth as lying on the shortest possible course—that formed by the Sandusky and Seneca rivers, which at a certain point, only nine miles apart.

"In fifty years, according to experts, the coal fields of Pennsylvania will be exhausted. Then the world will have to come to Kentucky and West Virginia for her coal, and then, gentlemen, Portsmouth will become the greatest manufacturing center of the world."

After laying these facts before the audience, Mr. Jordan introduced Dr. Garland, who was recently head of the Food Administration of Ohio.

"No man lives on himself," quoted Dr. Garland, in opening his address.

"If anyone in Portsmouth imagines that his business can live by itself, he is mistaken. No city can live by itself, neither can a state nor a nation. We must either rise or fall together. You must unite to develop Portsmouth's possibilities unlimited.

"No man can foresee what may happen, nor can he depend on safety on his own efforts. Men must look to each other, and all must look to one higher.

"We have come to a time of city civilization.

"Why do men fear for what may come tomorrow? Because of the social unrest which is nourished in cities. The farmers are always contented, always satisfied, never worried, because he is sufficient unto himself. 100 years ago only 25 percent of the American people lived in cities. The balance were farmers. Now more than one-half of the people of Ohio live in municipalities.

"This is on account of the development of machines. They brought people into cities on account of the increased production and consequent increased wealth in which they resulted.

"Cities used to be allowed to spring up without plan, without thought of unity or co-operation. Such cities as Cincinnati and Dayton and Portsmouth merely grew. The only city in the United States which was originally built upon a definite plan is the national capital.

"As a result of this haphazard growth, we have problems—labor discontent and social unrest. The wealth getters think only of wealth, and no thought has been given to the careful planning of cities.

"The Nazarene, 1900 years ago, condemned Jerusalem for its wickedness, selfishness and vice. He gave plans for the improvement of conditions and was crucified.

"One day His disciples gathered with Him on a hill overlooking the city, forsaken by the crowd because He had advocated self-sacrifice and love as a remedy for the troubles of Jerusalem, and Christ predicted that not one stone would remain on another, so complete would be the city's destruction. In forty years His prediction had come true.

"Providence has done all it will do for Portsmouth. The rest is up to you. The big business men of the last century have thought only of wealth

Mr. Law First To Join Chamber Of Commerce

Monday evening, at five o'clock, the first application for membership in the Chamber of Commerce of Portsmouth was signed. Mr. George Law, of the City of C. Smoker, was the first to sign. He was immediately furnished with a pen and ink, and in much less time than it takes to write it, he was possessed of the distinction of being the first citizen of Portsmouth to apply for membership in the city's great new civic-commercial organization. Not only has the first application been signed, but a check in full payment of the first year's dues is tucked snugly away in a safe place in the headquarters office.

"No mean distinction that, of being the first citizen out of forty thousand to put in writing his desire to cooperate with others who have the best interests of Portsmouth at heart. In years to come, the tradition will be handed down from one generation of the Law family to another, that an ancestor of theirs was the first man to actively enter into the membership of the Chamber of Commerce of Portsmouth, Ohio, that great organization whose efforts are so largely responsible for the Portsmouth of today."

Although the active drive for membership does not start until Tuesday, November 18th, applications will not be refused from anyone who manifests a desire to sign up. "That is one way of showing your progressive spirit," said the Campaign Director, Mr. Law.

"Don't wait for the Chamber of Commerce to come to you; come to the Chamber of Commerce."

The first important community meeting of the campaign is the smoker to be held at the Elks Club, Dr. D. F. Garland of the Department of Public Welfare of Dayton, Ohio, will speak to the meeting on "The Chamber of Commerce and its importance to the City."

It is particularly hoped by the committee in charge of arrangements for the smoker, that the members of the Elks Lodge will all be present at the meeting. The evening will hold something of interest for everyone who concerns himself with the future welfare of Portsmouth.

A meeting this afternoon at the Security Bank Building, will give the women of Portsmouth their first opportunity to hear from James E. Green, the real significance of the present campaign, to the city of Portsmouth and to the surrounding territory. From the number of telephoned inquiries which have come in to Campaign Headquarters from various women of the city, one may judge that interest in the new organization is running high. One lady, calling in to ascertain whether the body was to be open to women members seemed extremely gratified when informed that the women of Portsmouth would be urged to cooperate with the men in the great movement for the common good of all, and she immediately gave assurance that she would be one of the first to sign an application.

PEEVED BECAUSE RATIFICATION WAS DEFEATED CLARK GOES ON RAMPAGE

Peeved over reports of the vote having defeated National Ratification, according to witnesses, Roy Clark, shoe-worker and dry adherent, went on a rampage at a house at 1917 S. 15th street last night and he became so violent that it was necessary to call the police to subdue him.

Clark, who is a mute, was brought to the city jail on a charge of disorderly conduct, but he was later released on $10 bond, which was forfeited when the defendant failed to appear for trial this morning.

Placed In Children's Home

Tuesday-afternoon Probate Judge Gilliland heard evidence relative to the condition and surroundings of the six Brunner children left homeless by the death of their mother and father. Mrs. and Mrs. John Brunner, who died several weeks ago within three days of each other. The grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Stumbo attempted to care for the children but was also taken ill and the Bureau of Community Services looked after the six orphaned children. The Woolmen of the World paying much of the expense.

After hearing the case Judge Gilliland called in his advisory committee, consisting of J. W. Jordan, Mrs. E. J. Reed, Miss Mary Purcell and Webb Dugby, and Superintendent C. W. Howes of the Children's Home and H. Taylor representing the Home. After hearing all evidence Judge Gilliland ordered the children committed to the Home. Although the Home has no way at present of caring for small children, one only three months old and the other not able to walk, the Home representatives decided to take the children in being necessary to provide a nursery and an attendant.

Bird-Like Notes Of Galli-Curci Delight Appreciative Audience

Relative to the appearance of Galli-Curci in Huntington last night, whose wonderful singing was enjoyed by many people, the Herald-Dispatch of that city this morning said:

"The rosiest expectations, even the rosiest predictions, were surpassed by the Galli-Concert at the Auditorium last night.

"The largest crowd in the history of the Auditorium assembled there and enjoyed in the fullest a program that was entirely to its taste.

"The prima donna won her audience to herself as well as to her art, for hers was a charming presence, and truly gracious.

"The verdict was one of unanimous approval, the great audience remaining in place and applauding after the last magnificent number of the program, the Mad Scene of Lucia. After repeated acknowledgments of the applause Madame Galli-Curci returned to the platform, bearing in her hand a note.

"She was a good father and will be sadly missed by his family, and all who knew him."

MRS. EFFIE WALKER IS FIRST WOMAN TO JOIN THE NEW CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The first woman to sign a membership application for the new Chamber of Commerce was Mrs. Effie Walker, one of the most prominent of the Portsmouth Red Cross workers during the war. Mrs. Walker entered Campaign Headquarters yesterday afternoon and after expressing her desire to sign an application, said: "I believe that every woman taxpayer of Portsmouth should become a member of the Chamber of Commerce. Not that the other women of Portsmouth are not as interested as those who own property, and I believe they should join, too, but it is to the decided interest of the tax payer to have an active part in any good thing that may be undertaken for the city."

"I believe that the first thing undertaken by the Chamber of Commerce should be the extension of sidewalks to the property now inside the city limits which is not yet reached by the existing ones. The cleaning of the streets and the increase of the police force should also be advocated."

D.O.K.K. PARADE TONIGHT

Not since the D. O. K. K. parade of several months ago has there been a gathering of the organization like that which will be held tonight. The event of the day will be a march parade to be held between 6:30 and 7:00. The time for the parade was announced as 6:30 in order to get the "bodies" there in time.

Members of the D. O. K. K. will be here from Ironton, Ashland, Jackson, Wellston, Chillicothe and Westfield. Invitations have been sent to every member of the D. O. K. K. in the area, and a large turnout is anticipated. The event is the first great occasion of the D. O. K. K. since its formation.

The parade will be followed by a picnic at the Temple, Fourth and Washington streets. The line of march for the parade will be down Fourth to the Temple at 12 o'clock to look out east on Second to Chillicothe, north on Chillicothe to Fifth, west on Fifth to Washington and north on Washington to the Temple.
